Hey Andrew,

Just a heads up to let you know that a crane permit has been approved for this Saturday. See below for details:

This Saturday, 4 am to 12 noon. They will be deploying an electronic message board this evening, or early tomorrow morning, to start warning the motorist.

Full closure at 924 S. Westwood Bl. Only Northbound Westwood Bl., at Weyburn will be affected. Should be done earlier, but asked for 12 noon, in case they run into delays.

They have all the necessary noise variance letter for the night work, and approved traffic control plans.

Let me know if you have any questions!
